Car Show and Sponsorship: Richard Harris and Harold Dobbins reported that the GSCC Car Show was a success. Monies were collected and distributed for the two charities (Jason's House and Wounded Warriors Special Operations). Sometime in the near future, there will be a meeting in North Carolina with all the car clubs to work on the 2017 schedule of shows. Larry Baine volunteered to head up the annual car show in 2017. It was suggested that we try to schedule the Jud Kuhn show in the spring of 2017 on a Saturday, perhaps in late March. Richard Harris reminded the membership that although it will be the Myrtle Beach Car Club who will be getting monies for the charities at the Jud Kuhn October 8th show, it is important to show good will to Jud Kuhn by having several GSCC members show up early in the day to help with whatever tasks there will be needed to get the show going.

Jason's House: Pat Hicks reported that it was a good year for the club's participation with Jason's House. He stated that there were zero rain days for the first time in ten years.
