A Busy Weekend...

The weekend of June 6-7 was very busy for The Club. Members participated in Cars and Coffee, the first Jason's House of the season, and the Corvette show run by the Myrtle Beach Corvette Club.

Cars and Coffee met on Sunday at The Bagel Factory near Carolina Forest on Route 501 in Myrtle Beach. You can see that the turn-out was quite good.

A bit of a miracle at Jason's House...

Pat tells us, "We had a bit of a miracle happen at Jason's House on Sunday. We had a 20-year-old with terminal brain cancer, he rode with me in my car, afterwards the father came over to me and said that his son smiled for the first time in over two years. His spirits were so lifted when he was inside the church he saw a piano and asked if he could play it, he has not played piano in over 3 years because he no longer has feelings in his hands. He sat down and played and brought tears to just about everyone. That is what makes what we do so worth it." Thanks for sharing this uplifting story, Pat. Truly, it is a bit of a miracle!

The MBCC Corvette Show - 2015

Your on-the-spot reporter, Pat, files this report about the show: "David and Linda took 3rd place in the C4 category and I took 2nd place in the C7 category at the Myrtle Beach Corvette Club car show. There were close to 20 C4's and 74 C7's. A total of 340 Corvettes."
