

The March meeting of GSCC was held on March 13, 2016 at The Smokin' Hot Barbeque in N. Myrtle Beach at 4:00 PM.

President Pat welcomed all.

A motion was made, seconded and approved to accept the minutes of the February 21, 2016 meeting as submitted.

President's Report: Pat Hicks reported that there was a great turn out at the March 12th Maggi D's cruise in and he congratulated Debbie Harris taking a trophy on her new vintage Thunderbird. He also reported that the 1st Cars and Coffee was well attended. He announced that Rubon Lusten's father had just passed away. Rubon is the owner of the Bagel Factory. George Washnak announced that his band would be playing at the Bull N'Bush on Thursday (St. Patrick's day).

Treasurer's Report: Dee Lopes gave the Treasurer's report stating that there was no money coming in and no money spent leaving the final balance at the end of February at $XXXX.XX.

Secretary Report: Cindy Baine reported that the minutes of the February 21, 2016 had been posted on the website.

Membership Report: Mickey Sharp reported that membership still stands at approximately 69-70 members, but that there are two members who still had not renewed their membership this year.

Activities Report: Cindy Baine stated that the March activity will be held directly after the April membership meeting which will be held at the 710 Bowling Alley in N. Myrtle Beach. Besides bowling there is foosball, darts, billiards, bocce ball, table tennis and shuffle board. They also have plenty of large screen televisions. The May activity will be 2nd Sunday in Charleston. On June 4th, La Belle Amie Vineyard in Little River will be hosting the American Pie Oldies Music Festival. George's band will be one of the bands. Admission is $8.00, but only $3.00 if you bring at least 2 cans of food for the local food bank. Mickey Sharp reported that everyone who went to the Forever Doo-Wop show on Saturday night had a good time.

Old Business:

Richard Harris reported that he and Harold Dobbins met with Jud Kuhn again and his dealership is now officially a sponsor for the club. They will work with our club on the club's big show with advertising, flyers and food. Richard reiterated that obviously, members of the GSCC should also actively participate and volunteer to help the dealership with their cruise-ins and shows. Pat Hicks thanked both Richard and Harold for doing such a good job in making this happen and that the club looks forward to many years of productive and fun shows.

Upcoming cruise-ins: Pat Hicks reported that the club will be sponsoring Cecil's cruise in on July 2nd at Sam Snead's. The club will get 50% of the 50/50 which will go to Jason's House. The Dillon County Car show will be in Dillon, SC on April 30th from 10:00 AM until 4:00 PM.

There will be a Fire Truck and Hot Rods show “under the lights” in Bolivia, NC from 5:00 to 9:00 on April 3rd. The next Cars and Coffee will be at the Bagel Factory on April 3rd. Steve Tedone stated that there will be a cruise in at Cheesesteak Factory in Surfside on Wednesday, March 16th from 5:00 to 8:00 PM. Pat Hicks will post the Jason’s House schedule as soon as he gets it.

New Business:

Pat Hicks talked about the perks of being a member of the National Corvette Museum.

Future Trips: Mickey and Eileen Sharp and Debbie Harris spoke about working on a Savannah trip and Mickey and Eileen will be checking out packages.

The club will look at adding a second charity this year. One of the charities suggested was the Special Operations Wounded Warriors charity. The charity helps local veterans. This charity has nothing to do with the Wounded Warrior Foundation.

A motion was made, seconded and approved to buy a club brick for the National Corvette Museum.

With no further business the meeting adjourned at 4:45 PM.
